'MANAGING AND DEALING WITH RISK TO DELIVER SUCCESSFUL PROJECTS'

CONFERENCE

LOCATION: MEDIA CITY, SALFORD

http://www.salford.ac.uk/mediacityuk/location

Contact: oliver.southgate@environment-agency.gov.uk

DATE: 28th JANUARY 2019 9.30-3.30PM (please aim to arrive before 9.30am)

Lunch and refreshments will be provided (conference attendance is FREE!)

Delivered by: The Environment Agency

Hosted by: Salford University

Lead Contacts: Olly Southgate, Martin Slater, George Heritage and Alison Whalley

Posters welcome (please speak to Olly about this prior to the event)

9-9.30AM – ARRIVAL AND REFRESHMENTS

9.50-10am – Introduction to the event – Dominic Martyn – CaBA National Support Group, Integrated Catchment Delivery Programme Manager

SESSION 1

10-10.30am – Examples of projects that encountered complications/difficulties – Seb Bentley - AquaUOS

10.30-11am – Delivering projects in West Cumbria – Luke Bryant, West Cumbria Rivers Trust

11-11.20am – PEATLANDS – Katie Aspray/Alison Whalley – Environment Agency Cumbria and Lancs

11.20-11.50am – RISKY RIBBLE – Jack Spees - Ribble Rivers Trust

11.50-12.10pm – SALMON TO SHEFFIELD – Martin Slater – Environment Agency Yorkshire

12.10-12.30pm - Questions to all and open discussion with the audience

12.30-1.10 – Lunch

SESSION 2

1.10-1.35pm – Controlled versus uncontrolled weir removal/collapse – Kevin Nash, Environment Agency GMMC

1.35-2pm – ‘Barrier to Barriers’ – Dave Kennedy, Environment Agency Cumbria and Lancashire

2-2.10pm – Questions

SESSION 3

2.10-3pm – Break out into groups of approximately 10-15 people per group discussing these topics

- What are the biggest challenges faced when delivering river restoration works?

- What are the risks of delivering this type of work?

- What can be done to make things easier in order to deliver our works more efficiently and effectively in the future?

3-3.30 pm – summary and discussion regarding the points raised in the breakout sessions

3.30pm close

LOCATION AND DIRECTIONS CAN BE FOUND AT:
http://www.salford.ac.uk/mediacityuk/location

To register please contact Olly Southgate – oliver.southgate@environment-agency.gov.uk

REGISTER NOW AS SPACES WILL BE LIMITED