RRC Conference 2018 Bookings Still Open

There is still time to book your place at the 19th Annual Network Conference. This year, the conference is being held in Nottingham, and is titled Engaging with Rivers. Don't miss this opportunity to hear up to date research and current projects taking place in the industry, from academics, consultants, contractors, trusts and government bodies. Plus, choose a workshop or site visit from a variety of themes including floodplains, Natural Capital, sediment management and large wood.

RHS CERTIFICATION COURSE

Last chance to book your place on the RHS Certification course in Cardiff from March 13th-16th. RRC's Marc Naura is once again running this course to teach you how to identify, record and analyse features along a stretch of river, using this standardised technique, in order to monitor and compare with other similar river reaches >>
