

the River Restoration Centre

Working to restore and enhance our rivers

Bulletin

DATE: 2014 RRC Annual Network Conference will be held at Sheffield Hallam University on 7th and 8th May.

Filters

Project Name

Tributary

Project Status

Proposed

Completed

Case Study

Year Completed

Aspirations

Bank Erosion

Barrier Mitigation

Community Demand

Development Gain

Habitat

Fisheries

Flood Risk Management

Landscape

Morphology

Pollution Mitigation

Additional Filters

Catchment Restoration Fund

Designated River (SSSI / SAC)

London Rivers Action Plan

Water Environment Fund

Manual of Techniques

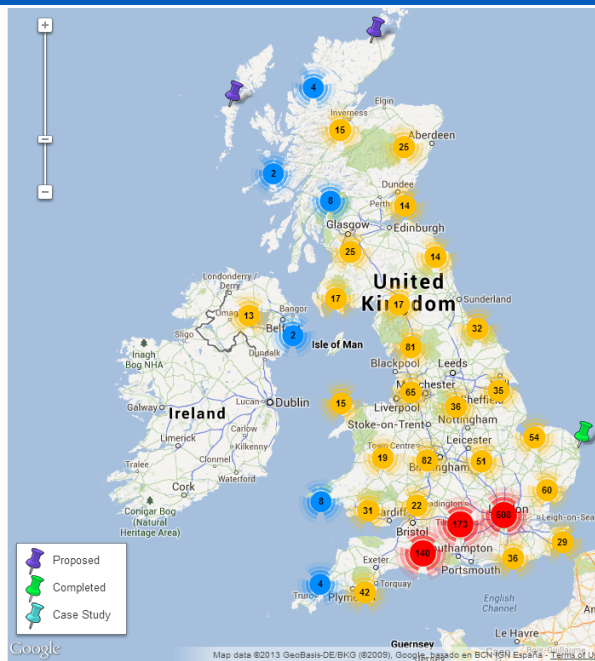

National Agency Region

RRC Involvement

Case Specific Advice

Organised Site Visit

RRC LAUNCH NEW UK WEBMAP

The revised map now includes over 1500 UK proposed and completed projects and case studies. New filters allow users to locate relevant examples. Find out how to use it, and get the most from it. More >>

RRC TRAINING WORKSHOP & EU POLICY CHALLENGES

A summary of two RESTORE project events that ran in Belgium and the Netherlands in June 2013. More >>

RIVER RESTORATION WORKSHOP, MANCHESTER

Outputs from an inspiring EA workshop in July and a video of Prestloee weir removal in action. More >>

August 2013, Issue 31

River restoration in the Anglian region, E. England

Recent work RRC has been involved with & an overview of data from the NRRI. More >>

Weirs in rivers: What goes up, must come down?

M.Sc. student Matt Leeson outlines his study which aims to help identify and assess weir removal 'risk'. More >>

Contribute to our newsletter

Deadline for draft articles is 30th September 2013. More >>

SNH Event: Sharing good practice: 24-25 September

An event, in partnership with RRC, aims to share restoration knowledge and skills. More >>

SEPA restoration vacancies

Join SEPA's Water Environment Fund team. More >>

REFORM project policy brief

Issue 1: Hydromorphology of European rivers. More >>

5th European River Restoration Conference

11th-13th September in Vienna. Book now! More >>

The RRC would like to thank our core funders and

