

RRC Bulletin

April 2022 - Issue 124

2022 RRC Conference bookings open!

28th & 29th June, Chesford Grange, Warwickshire

We are pleased to announce bookings for this year's conference are open! Check out our website to book your place, view the programme, submit a poster abstract or sponsor the conference. This year's programme is 2 days packed full of presentations, discussions, workshop sessions and site visits, as well as our keynote speaker Professor David Sear from the University of Southampton.

Early-bird booking deadline May 16th!

Find out more

2022 River Champions nominations open!

'River Champions' seeks to recognise and celebrate the outstanding efforts of individuals contributing to river restoration in their area. It aims to recognise those dedicating time outside of their day-to-day roles to contribute toward improving rivers for wildlife and people. The selected River Champions will be invited to the UK River Prize Dinner on 28th June 2022 to receive a River Champions Certificate; acknowledged on RRC social media platforms; and documented on the RRC website where their contribution and achievements will be detailed on a permanent River Champions webpage.

Deadline May 9th!

Find out more & nominate

River Restoration Job Opportunities

There are a few job opportunities currently on the river restoration-related jobs webpage on the RRC website.

Senior River Engineer at Mott MacDonald

Senior Project Manager at Stonbury

Senior Environmental Scientist at Jacobs

Want to advertise your job vacancy with RRC? Email us to find out more rrc@therrc.co.uk

Find out more

John Wheatland leaves RRC

Our Science & Technical Officer John Wheatland is leaving RRC after almost 2 years with the team. Good luck to John in his future career and all the best for the future.

We would like to thank and our core funders for their continued support

