

RRC Bulletin

February 2019 - Issue 89

RRC Conference 2019 Bookings still open

Find out more

Britannia Adelphi Hotel, Liverpool - April 30th & May 1st

2019 RIVER CHAMPIONS NOMINATIONS OPEN - DEADLINE MARCH 4TH

Nominate someone as a River Champion and showcase the hard work of an individual outside of their everyday role. This award recognises the efforts of those volunteering their time and working to enhance and restore our waterways.

Find out more

2019 INTEGRATED CATCHMENT DELIVERY EVENTS

Have a look at the updated webpage for the 2019 programme of events designed to bring together stakeholders, share knowledge, engage communities, and embed best practice to benefit people, land management and the environment. The new-look website puts events into categories making it easy, clear and simple for you to select events of interest to you.

Find out more

UPCOMING TRAINING COURSES & SITE VISIT

Still time to book onto upcoming training courses next month.

Also, upcoming site visit to Love Your River Telford on May 22nd in Shropshire. Have a look at the flyer for more information on this project which was runner up in the 2018 UK River Prize, and demonstrates innovative approaches and community engagement.

6th March 2019	Yate Town Council Buildings, South Gloucestershire, BS37 5PP	Hydromorphology for River Restoration (Level 2) - More information
26th - 29th March 2019	University Hall, Birchwood Road, Cardiff, CF23 5YB, Wales	River Habitat Survey Certification Course - More information
29th May 2019	Birmingham	Developing a Catchment-wide River Restoration Plan

Find out more

NEWS & EVENTS

Natural Flood Risk Management - Does it work?

First Crowdfunded barrier has been removed - Crosthwaite Culvert, Cumbria

Watch this space... 2019 UK River Prize finalists to be announced end of March

Anything you would like to share?
Click here to send us your news and events

More news and events

We would like to thank  and our core funders for their continued support

