

RRC Bulletin

July 2020 - Issue 105

RRC ANNUAL NETWORK CONFERENCE TO BE HELD ONLINE

The RRC Conference will be held online on 9th & 10th September 2020. If you have already booked your place at this year's conference, you should have received an email last week with more information. We will be updating the Conference webpage on the RRC website, and suggest you check the website for updates. Bookings are still open for the online conference format, at a reduced cost.

Find out more & book your place

UPCOMING ONLINE TRAINING COURSES

Since lockdown started, we have run 2 successful training courses online! We have also been developing other training courses in order to offer them online. Check out the next 2 upcoming courses online:

'Developing a Catchment-wide river restoration plan' - 24th September

'Introduction to Hydromorphology (Level 1)' - 7th October

We hope to hold more courses in this format later in the year, and into the new year. If you are not able to attend a course but are still interested in attending at a later date, please email us and register your interest. Interested delegates will be notified of new training course dates before bookings go live on the website.

Find out more & book your place on a course

NEWS & EVENTS

Multi-billion pound investment as government unveils new long-term plan to tackle flooding

Catchment Cooperative Monitoring Consultation

Living Planet Index for Migratory Freshwater Fish

Daily flow data for water year 2018/2019 available

Latest news and events

We would like to thank

and our core funders for their continued support

