

RRC Bulletin

November 2018 - Issue 87

RRC CONFERENCE 2019 EARLY-BIRD BOOKINGS OPEN

We are pleased to announce bookings for the 20th RRC Conference are now open! Have a look at the draft programme and book your place now at early-bird rates. Next year's conference will be held in on April 30th & May 1st at the Britannia Adelphi Hotel in Liverpool, looking at a range of topics including NFM, geomorphology, large-scale engineering, learning from what goes wrong, citizen science, and catchment planning. Make sure you secure your place at this event which attracted 350 delegates to Nottingham in April 2018. This is a brilliant chance to network with new contacts, current colleagues, and industry professionals from a range of backgrounds including contractors, consultants, academics and representatives from third sector organisations.

Plus, don't miss this opportunity to sponsor this event. Sponsorship opportunities range from a trade stand in the exhibition area, to an advert in the handbook. Have a look at the available packages and sponsor benefits.

Thanks to our 2019 sponsors so far:

Find out more

RIVER HABITAT SURVEY CERTIFICATION

We are pleased to announce we will be holding another River Habitat Survey (RHS) Certification course next year. This 4-day RHS Course will take place from Tuesday 26th March to Friday 29th March 2019. It will include presentations, fieldwork, practice sessions and both a written and practical test on the final day. Spaces are limited so book your space now!

Find out more

2019 UK RIVER PRIZE

Applications for the 2019 UK River Prize are now open!

Are you intending to submit a project for the 2019 UK River Prize? Read the applicant guidelines now for more information.

Would you like to partner next year's River Prize? There are various packages available to be a partner of this award.

Register interest

Find out more

NEWS & EVENTS

How can we work with nature to reduce flood risk?

'Nature' prescriptions improve wellbeing

Do fish passage facilities and culverts promote fish movement at barriers? A systematic review

More news and events

LOCAL TRUSTS AND SMALL ORGANISATIONS

This issue we are highlighting the efforts of another 2018 River Champion, Sean O'Loughlin who works on the ground to clear obstacles such as debris and windfalls, improve water quality and replace washed gravels, to help create spawning habitat for wild brown trout in the lower Erne River system. Sean also encourages others to get involved in river restoration in the local area.

Find out more

We would like to thank  and our core funders for their continued support