

RRC Bulletin

September 2021 - Issue 118

2021 UK River Prize Finalists Announced

We have just announced the two 2021 UK River Prize finalists!

'River Keekle Restoration' & 'EPIC - Enhancing Places, Inspiring People'

Congratulations to both projects. The winner will be announced at the RRC Annual Network Conference at the DoubleTree by Hilton Harrogate Majestic Hotel and online on 21st October 2021. Booking for the RRC Conference and UK River Prize Awards Dinner are still open! Book now through the RRC website.

UK River Prize Finalist information

Conference Booking

Are you an amateur photographer?

We are looking for a photographer to take a range of photographs at our Annual Network Conference in Harrogate next month. Interested? Get in touch rrc@therrc.co.uk

Training course programme

17 th November 2021	Introduction to Hydromorphology
1 st December 2021	Putting Ecology into River Restoration: An Introduction
8 th December 2021	Developing a Catchment-wide river restoration plan
26 th January 2022	River Erosion Management
9 th February 2022	Hydromorphology for River Restoration (Level 2)
23 rd February 2022	Advanced Hydromorphology (Level 3)

Find out more about our series of training courses

News & Events

RRC recently hosted a summer intern. Read the blog to find out what they got up to!

River Skerne Restoration Project Tender with Durham Wildlife Trust & Discover Brightwater

Job opportunity: Senior Aquatic Ecologist at Atkins

Job opportunity: Priority Habitats Project Officer at Freshwater Biological Association

Job opportunity: Geomorphologist at Natural Resources Wales

World Rivers Day was held on Sunday 26th September 2021, highlighting many values of our rivers

Latest news and events

We would like to thank

and our core funders for their continued support

