

the River Restoration Centre

Working to restore and enhance our rivers

February 2011, Issue 2

Bulletin

A SNAPSHOT OF RIVER RESTORATION ACTIVITIES

- The River Nar Restoration Strategy's first habitat enhancement schemes will start in February at Narborough, Castle Acre and West Lexham. Click here
- The removal of 2 barriers to fish on the River's Meden and Maun near New Ollerton, Nottinghamshire. Click here
- Meander creation, riverbed restoration, bank erosion works and the removal of silt and waste on Mousesweet Brook, Cradley Heath. Click here
- The transformation of Mayes Brook Park to realign the brook, create meanders, riffles and pools to provide habitat and alleviate flood risk. Click here
- Environmentally-sensitive river management of the River Hipper in Derbyshire to alleviate flood risk at Chesterfield. Click here

Click to share your project with the RRC

BE AT RRC'S ANNUAL NETWORK CONFERENCE 2011

14TH APRIL AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTTINGHAM, OPTIONAL VISIT ON 15TH

Guests are welcome to attend the day, extended day and/or the evening session and thanks to generous support from our sponsors, discounted places of up to 50% are still available!

Seminars on all the hot topics in river restoration and management, from on-the-ground project award winners, strategic planners, academics, volunteer groups and the big commercial leaders

Click to view the programme and booking form

UPCOMING EVENTS

INCLUDING THE RIVER SCIENCE, HYDROPOWER AND RRC CONFERENCES

Click to view the schedule for upcoming events

Visit our website, follow us on LinkedIn or become a Facebook fan

If you have questions or comments, or if you would like to remove your name from our mailing list, please contact us by email: rrc@therrc.co.uk or call 01234 752979.